PRESS RELEASE

November 21, 2011

Mayor Glover Honored for Supporting US Army Recruiting

About 20 soldiers converged on Government Plaza today to honor Mayor Cedric Glover for his ongoing support for the U.S. Army's local recruiting efforts.

Maj. Terrence Smith, company commander, said he appreciates the Mayor's commitment and the encouragement he's provided throughout the year.

"We appreciate all that you do and, to us, you are a true American," Smith said.

Mayor Glover has recognized the local recruiting station at several public functions, including a formal swearing in of dozens of recruits at the 2011 Port City Classic football game at Independence Stadium.

"You know that I'm very proud to support what you do because you guys are the true heroes, and I stand with you," Mayor Glover said.
