Shreveprot Police dectectives ask for help to identify suspect in home invasion

Shreveport Police are looking for a subject who allegedly committed a home invasion in north Shreveport last night.

On November 29, 2017 just after 10:00 pm, Shreveport Police responded to reports of a home invasion in the 1500 block of David Raines Road. Officers arrived and were met by a very shaken 96-year-old female. The victim told officers that she was sitting on her bed reading her bible when she heard what sounded like glass breaking in her kitchen. She went to investigate the noise and encountered a thin built black male in his early 20's wearing a white headband. The man demanded money from the victim then grabbed her. She attempted to fight back until the suspect threatened to kill her. The suspect plundered the victim's bedroom, located her purse, and removed an undisclosed amount of money, then fled the scene.

Detectives with the Robbery Task Force are investigating this matter and are asking anyone with any information about this crime to contact Crime Stoppers at 318-673-7373. Crime Stoppers will pay a cash reward for information leading to the identification of this person.
