Shreveport Police investigate suspicious death

Detectives with the Shreveport Police Department are investigating the circumstances surrounding a deceased person located inside of a west Shreveport home earlier this morning.

On May 18, 2018 just after 9:15 am, Shreveport Police Patrol Officers responded to a welfare concern in the 2400 block of Stonewall Avenue. Officers were advised that a female who resided at the residence did not arrive at work as scheduled. Officers entered the residence to check the woman's welfare and located a deceased woman inside. The cause of death is not known but investigators are treating it as suspicious.

Investigators released information on two vehicles they were searching for relative to this investigation: a white 2017 Ford Fusion bearing Louisiana tag 734ACH and a tan four door Ford pickup truck bearing Louisiana tag Y0174641. The truck was reportedly equipped with chrome step-rails and possibly a bed cover. The white Ford Fusion was recovered earlier this afternoon. This matter remains under active investigation at this hour.
