Man charged after stray round strikes woman

Suspected Detrevious Johnson

A Shreveport man is charged with illegal use of a weapon in follow-up investigation.

Back on September 16, 2018, Shreveport Police patrol officers were called to the 7200 block of Jewella Avenue relative to a shooting. As officers arrived at the scene, it was learned a female victim was suffering a single gunshot wound to the lower body. The victim, who was taken via ambulance to University Health Hospital with non-life-threatening injuries continues to recover.

It was learned the victim was injured by a round which was fired through her apartment, striking her as she sat inside. Authorities were able to trace the origin of the round to a neighboring apartment; however, the tenants in the apartment had fled prior to officer arrival. During the course of the investigation a suspect was identified as 23 year old Detrevious Johnson. It is believed Johnson was inside his apartment when he was handling his handgun, which subsequently fired through the apartment's wall. Johnson arrived at Shreveport Police headquarters on September 28, 2018 and was arrested and charged following subsequent interviews.
