Shreveport man sought on domestic battery charges

Suspect Zackary Reed

Shreveport Police investigators are seeking the whereabouts of a man accused of domestic abuse battery.

On October 15, 2018, Shreveport Police patrol officers were called to the 2300 block of Scovell Court relative to a domestic call. Upon arrival, officers made contact with a female victim who was suffering from a contusion to the right side of her forehead and an abrasion to her left forearm. The victim advised she and her estranged boyfriend, 26-year-old Zackary Reed, were involved in an argument that turned violent. Reed allegedly pushed the victim into a wall, causing her to hit her face on the wall. Investigators procured a warrant for Reed's arrest, charging him with one count of Domestic Abuse Battery with Child Endangerment.

Investigators are asking anyone with the whereabouts of Reed to contact Shreveport Caddo Crime Stoppers at 318 673-7373, lockemup.org or via their app, P3Tips.
