FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Crime Stoppers tip leads to armed robbery arrests

Suspect Creston Alexander

Suspect Devonte Coleman

Shreveport Police detectives have charged a pair of suspects in connection with a rash of armed robberies of local businesses throughout Shreveport.

On January 4, 2019, Shreveport Police detectives arrested 22 year old Devonte Coleman, of the 3100 block of Desoto Street, and 27 year old Creston Alexander, of the 2200 block of Virginia Avenue, in reference to multiple armed robberies. The robberies, which occurred from December 17, 2018 through January 3, 2019, involved multiple locations of Family Dollars, Raceway and Circle K stores.

Based on information obtained via a Crime stoppers tip, Shreveport Police Tactical Robbery Unit investigators subsequently charged Coleman and Alexander each with seven counts of Armed Robbery. Both suspects are being held at the Caddo Correctional Center. Each man has previous arrests for multiple numerated criminal offenses.
