Police continue investigation into triple murder

Shreveport Police have an investigation underway into the murder of three men in the Allendale neighborhood overnight.

On October 6, 2020, just after midnight, Shreveport Police patrol officers responded to the 1500 block of Garden Street on reports of shots being fired. Arriving officers located three men near a vacant residence suffering from gunshot injuries. All three men were pronounced deceased on scene.

Investigators with the Homicide and Crime Scene Units were summoned to the scene. CSIU took photos and collected evidence while homicide investigators combed the area for witnesses and video. At this time, no suspects have been identified.

Police are asking anyone with information about this incident to contact them at 318-673-7300 #3 or 318-673-6955. Those wishing to submit information anonymously can contact Caddo Shreveport Crime Stoppers at 318-673-7373 or via their app, P3Tips.

The Caddo Parish Coroner's Office took custody of the decedents and an autopsy will be performed on each. The Coroner's Office will release the men's names at a later time.
