Couple arrested for Cruelty to a juvenile

Ietadterneisha Marshall Derrick George

Shreveport Police Department's Youth Services Division has arrested a couple following a gruesome discovery at their west Shreveport home.

On November 1, 2021, Shreveport Police patrol officers responded to the 3800 block of Larue Street on reports of a medical emergency. On arrival officers made contact with medics who were providing medical assistance to a 3-year-old child. The child was severely malnourished and in poor health. The child was transported to a local hospital for treatment and was determined to weigh eleven pounds.

The child's parents, Ietadterneisha Marshall (11-11-1990) and Derrick George (3-5-1986) were transported to the Shreveport police complex for questioning. Following interviews, they were both booked into the Shreveport City jail on one count each of Second-Degree Cruelty to a Juvenile.

DCFS was contacted and the investigation is ongoing.
