Shreveport Fire Communications to Hold Graduation and Promotional Ceremony

The Shreveport Fire Department Communications Division is proud to announce the upcoming Fire Communications Officer I graduation and Fire Communications Officer II promotional ceremony. The event will take place on March 23th, 2022, 6:00 p.m. at Broadmoor Baptist Church, 4110 Youree Drive Shreveport La. 71105

During the 12-week formal training class, the recruits were evaluated but not limited to: written and verbal tests, performance assessments, simulations, role-playing activities and practical exercises. After graduation the 6 new probationary FCO I's will be assigned to one of the 4 shifts that serve and protect the City of Shreveport and Caddo Parish, one 911 call at a time.

The FCO I graduates are:

RaeUna Carter
Brittani Griffin
Carla Hart
Venita King
Natacha Rogers
Tiffany Traylor

After serving in the capacity of a FCO I, all members can serve in a leadership role. Our new leaders who took the initiative to promote and dedicate their time to serve in the leadership capacity to monitor all City and Parish activities are:

LeKeisha Berry
Vicki Carter
Randell Owens
