MAYOR ARCENEUX RELEASES PODCAST ON 2021 BOND PROPOSAL PROJECT STATUS

With three bond propositions on the ballot April 27th, 2024, the citizens of Shreveport have been reminded of previously passed bond proposals. A continuously asked question is that of the 2021 Bond Projects, what is the status of those projects today? Mayor Arceneaux has responded to the people with a five-minute podcast that details each of the bond projects from the 2021 bond proposal, and where those projects stand today. You can watch the podcast at this link:

This podcast gives an honest, and straightforward account of the progress of each project along with a timeline for the next step of each project that is unfinished. The podcast can be found on the City of Shreveport's website, Facebook, and YouTube page.

If you would like to follow along with the current bond propositions, please refer to this website: <https://bond.shreveportla.gov>. Also, there are two more community-wide bond meetings left if you would like to educate yourself on the bond propositions up for vote this Saturday. One meeting at 5:30 pm at LSUS Wednesday April 24th, and one meeting at 5:30 pm at the Highland Center, Meeting Room One on Thursday, April 25th.
