Shreveport Police Seek Suspect Wanted for Second-Degree Rape

Lajonathan L. Hall

The Shreveport Police Department's Sex Crimes Unit is actively seeking Lajonathan L. Hall (01/30/1986) following an investigation that began in November 2024.

An arrest warrant has been issued for Hall on one count of Second-Degree Rape under Louisiana law. Second-degree rape is defined as sexual intercourse that occurs without the lawful consent of the victim under certain circumstances, including but not limited to:

- When the victim is unable to resist due to force or threats of violence.
- When the victim is incapable of resisting or understanding the act due to the influence of drugs or other substances administered without their knowledge.

If convicted, Hall could face up to 40 years in prison.

Anyone with information on Lajonathan L. Hall's whereabouts is urged to contact the Shreveport Police Department at (318) 673-7300 or Shreveport Crime Stoppers at (318) 673-7373.
