Shreveport Police Make Arrest in Stabbing Incident

Amanda Green

On March 25, 2025, just after 3:00 a.m., Shreveport Police officers responded to a domestic disturbance call in the 600 block of Columbia Street in the Highland neighborhood.

Upon arrival, officers discovered that a dispute between Amanda Green and the victim had escalated into a physical altercation. During the confrontation, Green armed herself with a knife and cut the victim on the neck. The victim struck Green in response. Thankfully, neither party sustained life-threatening injuries.

Officers thoroughly documented the scene and interviewed all individuals involved. As a result of the investigation, Amanda Green was arrested and charged with aggravated battery. Officers also recovered the knife used in the incident.

The Shreveport Police Department reminds the public that domestic violence situations can escalate quickly, and seeking help before they turn physical is critical.
