Domestic Violence Incident Results in Arrest

Cordarius Moore

On April 20, 2025, just after 7:30 p.m., Shreveport Police officers responded to a residence in the 400 block of Browning Street in reference to an armed person.

Upon arrival, officers located a 16-year-old female who was visibly distraught and suffering from a bloody nose. Officers quickly determined the situation was a domestic incident. The juvenile victim informed officers that her 20-year-old boyfriend, Cordarius Moore, had physically assaulted her and was still inside the residence armed with a knife.

Officers swiftly secured the scene and detained all individuals present. Preliminary investigation revealed that an argument had occurred between the victim and Moore, with whom she had been in a romantic relationship. During the course of the investigation, officers observed bruising around the victim's neck, indicating signs of strangulation.

As a result, Cordarius Moore was arrested and charged with one count of Domestic Abuse Battery by Strangulation. Additionally, based on the victim's age and the nature of their relationship, Moore was also charged with one count of Carnal Knowledge of a Juvenile.

He was taken into custody by patrol officers without further incident.

The Shreveport Police Department remains committed to protecting victims of domestic violence and ensuring those responsible are held accountable.
