Shreveport Police Department Announces Recent Domestic Violence Arrests

The Shreveport Police Department is committed to protecting victims and holding offenders accountable in domestic violence cases, a serious issue that continues to impact our community. Recent arrests underscore the department's dedication to addressing and preventing domestic abuse.

On June 12, 2025, Chadrick Edwards was arrested for domestic abuse by strangulation. On the same day, Rondicious Davis was taken into custody on charges of domestic abuse and trespassing.

Curtis Foster was arrested on June 12, 2025, for domestic battery of a pregnant victim, along with domestic abuse battery with child endangerment.

On June 13, 2025, Tanya Griffin was arrested for domestic abuse battery by strangulation and interfering with emergency communication.

Domestic violence is a pervasive problem that plagues families and communities alike. The Shreveport Police Department strongly affirms that love should never hurt. We encourage victims to seek help and remind the public that resources are available to support those affected.

If you or someone you know is experiencing domestic violence, please contact the Shreveport Police Department or local support services immediately.
