Arrest Made in Attempted Carjacking and Shooting on Lakeshore Drive

Tidarius Reddix

On June 7, 2025, at approximately 1:45 a.m., Shreveport Police officers and Shreveport Fire Department medics responded to a reported shooting at 4650 Lakeshore Drive near Nantucket Harbor. The 911 caller reported that an unknown Black male had just attempted to rob him. The caller further stated that gunfire was exchanged and he was bleeding from his left arm.

Shortly after, Tidarius Reddix arrived at Willis-Knighton North Hospital suffering from a gunshot wound. Detectives launched an investigation and determined that Reddix had been dropped off at Nantucket Harbor earlier that morning. While there, he attempted to carjack the victim while armed with a semi-automatic pistol. The victim, who was also armed, exchanged gunfire with Reddix during the attempted robbery.

This morning, the Shreveport Police Department's Warrants Unit took Tidarius Reddix into custody. He has been charged with one count of Carjacking.

Thanks to the quick work of investigators and the Warrants Unit, another violent felon is off the street and in custody.
