Shreveport Police Arrest Two in Separate Stolen Firearm Cases

Tony Thomas & Kielyn Combs

Shreveport Police Department officers arrested two individuals in separate incidents involving stolen firearms.

On November 8, 2025, just after 1:00 a.m., officers conducted a traffic stop and arrested Tony Thomas, 20, after discovering he was in possession of a firearm that had been reported stolen. Thomas has been charged with illegal possession of a stolen firearm.

In a related incident on November 9, 2025, just after 2:00 a.m., officers arrested Kielyn Combs, 20, after he was found in possession of a firearm. Further investigation confirmed that this weapon had also been stolen. Combs has been charged with illegal possession of a stolen firearm.

In both cases, the firearms have been seized and will be returned to their rightful owners.

The Shreveport Police Department thanks the community for remaining vigilant and encourages anyone with information about stolen property to contact the department.
