Shreveport Police Arrest Suspect in Domestic Battery Incident

David McKinney

Shreveport Police have arrested David McKinney following an incident that occurred on November 9, 2025, around 4:00 p.m.

Officers responded to the 3300 block of Stonewall Street regarding a report of a juvenile with a laceration to the right eye. During the course of their investigation, officers determined that McKinney had been involved in a physical altercation with multiple members of the household.

As a result, David McKinney was arrested and charged with two counts of Simple Battery and one count of Second-Degree Battery. The victims in this case are expected to recover.

The Shreveport Police Department reminds the public that domestic violence affects families across all communities and encourages anyone experiencing abuse to seek help by contacting law enforcement or local support services.
