Shreveport Police Arrest Two in Unrelated Domestic Violence Incidents

Dee Andrew Thomas & Carolyn Green

Shreveport, LA — The Shreveport Police Department has arrested two individuals in separate and unrelated domestic violence incidents that occurred during the early morning hours of December 16.

Just after 4:00 a.m., officers responded to a reported domestic disturbance in the 2700 block of Elmhurst Street. Upon arrival, officers discovered that Carolyn Green was armed with a knife and actively threatening members of the household. Family members were able to intervene and disarm Green before the situation escalated further; however, during the incident, two household members sustained cuts.

Carolyn Green was taken into custody and charged with two counts of Aggravated Battery.

In a separate incident later that same morning, officers arrested Dee Andrew Thomas following another domestic violence investigation. As a result of that incident, Thomas was charged with three counts of Domestic Abuse Child Endangerment, one count of Domestic Abuse Battery by Strangulation, and one count of Violation of a Protective Order.

Investigators also confirmed that Thomas was previously arrested in April 2025 for two counts of Domestic Abuse Child Endangerment.

The Shreveport Police Department continues to take domestic violence cases very seriously and remains committed to protecting victims and holding offenders accountable. Anyone experiencing domestic violence or aware of such situations is encouraged to report it immediately so officers can intervene and help.
