Shreveport Police Make Additional Domestic Violence Arrests

Austin Greber & Catreece Madison

The Shreveport Police Department continues its commitment to holding offenders accountable in domestic violence cases, even when investigations take time and suspects attempt to evade arrest.

On December 22, officers arrested in connection with a domestic violence incident that occurred in July in the 500 block of East 84th Street. Detectives had previously issued a warrant for Madison's arrest for one count of Domestic Abuse Battery with a Dangerous Weapon. The investigation revealed that Madison is accused of stabbing her girlfriend during a dispute. Madison was taken into custody without incident and now faces the charges associated with the outstanding warrant.

In a separate case, Shreveport Police also arrested Austin Greber following a domestic violence incident that occurred in 2024. During that incident, Greber allegedly armed himself with a machete and attempted to strike a family member. Fortunately, the victim was able to knock the weapon from Greber's hands and escape before being injured.

Following the incident, Greber evaded capture and was believed to be living out of state. Through continued investigative efforts, Greber was ultimately located, captured, and extradited back to Shreveport, where he now faces charges of Domestic Abuse Aggravated Assault.

The Shreveport Police Department takes domestic violence cases seriously and will continue working diligently to protect victims and ensure offenders are brought to justice—no matter how long it takes.

Anyone experiencing domestic violence is encouraged to seek help and report incidents immediately.
