Shreveport Police Make Multiple Arrests in Unrelated Violent Incidents

Over the holiday weekend, the Shreveport Police Department responded to multiple separate and unrelated incidents involving violent behavior, resulting in several arrests.

On Christmas Day, officers responded to an incident in which a female was reportedly armed with a dangerous weapon. Following the investigation, Tamyra Hampton was arrested and charged with two counts of Aggravated Battery with a Dangerous Weapon. Fortunately, no one was seriously injured.

On December 27, Desmond Robinson was arrested and charged with Domestic Abuse Strangulation and two counts of Child Endangerment, along with charges related to an unrelated incident.

On December 28, Khendrial Griffin was arrested and charged with one count of Aggravated Battery with a Dangerous Weapon following another violent encounter.

Although these incidents are not connected, each had the potential to result in serious injury or loss of life. Thankfully, none of the victims involved sustained significant injuries. The Shreveport Police Department emphasizes that violence in any form is dangerous and unacceptable, regardless of circumstances or individuals involved. SPD remains committed to responding swiftly, holding offenders accountable, and working to keep our community safe.
