Arrests for Guns and Drugs

Jaylan Young and Marvin Young

Shreveport Police arrested two armed individuals just before midnight on January 2 following a traffic stop at David Raines Road and Pouncey Lane.

During the stop, officers investigated that led to the arrests of Jaylan Young and Marvin Young. Both individuals were found to be in possession of narcotics and firearms.

Further investigation revealed that Jaylan Young is a convicted felon stemming from a prior firearms case in 2020. He now faces charges including distribution of narcotics and multiple weapons violations.

Marvin Young was found to be in possession of a stolen firearm. He has been charged with possession of a stolen firearm, distribution of narcotics, and illegal carrying of a weapon.

The Shreveport Police Department remains committed to proactively targeting individuals who illegally possess firearms and engage in criminal activity that threatens the safety of our community. Officers will continue aggressive enforcement efforts to keep dangerous weapons off the streets and protect the citizens of Shreveport.
