Shreveport Police and Bossier Sheriff to Address Narcotics Sales Linked to Vape Shops

The Shreveport Police Department, in partnership with the Bossier Parish Sheriff's Office, will co-host a media event to discuss recent arrests and significant seizures connected to narcotics being sold through vape shops within our communities.

Through a coordinated and effective joint investigation, both agencies have worked together to identify illegal activity, make substantial seizures, and arrest individuals involved in the distribution of narcotics. Officials will provide details regarding the investigation, the arrests made, and ongoing efforts to combat illegal drug activity in the region.

The press conference will be held:
