RE: Consent Decree – EPA/LDEQ & City of Shreveport

Dear Mr. Atol:

As of May 13, 2014 (effective date), the City of Shreveport entered into a Consent Decree with the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and Louisiana Department of Environmental Quality (LDEQ). This negotiated settlement will include an overall compliance schedule of 12 years and an estimated $350 million to repair and rehabilitate the City's wastewater system as part of a Capital Improvements Program (CIP). As required in Section II. Applicability, please find attached for your use a copy of the Consent Decree as all or some of your current duties may reasonably include compliance with any substantive provision of the Consent Decree.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at 673-6000.

Sincerely,

Autumn Permenter, P.E.
Assistant City Engineer
