A Shreveport woman is behind bars accused of stabbing another woman Sunday morning in west Shreveport.

Shortly after 8:00 a.m. in March 27, 2016, Shreveport Police patrolmen were called to a home located in the 300 block of West 69th Street, relative to a stabbing victim. On their arrival at the scene, officers located the victim, 41 year old Kelly Thrash suffering multiple cuts to her head, neck and chest. Thrash was taken to University Health where she is expected to recover from her injuries.

Authorities later detained and subsequently arrested 34 year old Amber Rogers in the matter. Authorities believe Rogers stabbed Thrash multiple times while inside the residence.
