FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Suspect sought in homicide of local teen

Suspect: Sirderrick Samuels

Shreveport Police investigators are seeking to locate a suspect named in the recent slaying of a local youth.

On November 8, 2016 Shreveport Police patrol officers were called to the 2400 block of Texas Avenue where family members were attempting to transport the 16 year old to the hospital when their vehicle broke down. The Shreveport Fire department transported the victim to University Health Hospital with multiple gunshot wounds where he succumbed to his injuries. First responders learned that the crime occurred in the 3000 block of Boss Avenue where officers were already on scene in reference to a shots fired call in that area.

Since the launch of the investigation, detectives have worked tirelessly in efforts to identify the person believed to be responsible for the murder. A result of those efforts have led to an arrest warrant being procured for a local man, who based on evidence and information gathered, has been linked to the crime. Sirdetrick Samuels 18, of Shreveport, is wanted for Second Degree Murder. Persons with any information regarding the whereabouts of the suspect are urged to call Crime Stoppers at (318) 673-7373 or visit their website at www.lockemup.org
